WHITE
Okay, guys. The devs added a new feature to the game.

YELLOW
What's the feature?

WHITE
Instead of killing, the imposters now fucks you.

YELLOW, PINK, RED, LIGHT GREEN, PURPLE, ORANGE, LIGHT BLUE
(excited)
Tentacle sex!

WHITE
Guys, focus!

WHITE
I have never lost a map as a crewmate, and I'm not starting now.

WHITE
Now, let's start doing our tasks.

SFX: ELECTRICAL WIRE

PURPLE
(sigh)
Why do I always seem to get wires as one of my tasks?

SFX: ALIEN
SFX: TENTACLES

PURPLE
(grabbed)
Ah!

SFX: TENTACLE THRUST

PURPLE
(surprised moans that turn into moans of pleasure)

SFX: DEAD BODY FOUND

WHITE
                        Where was it found?

                              PINK
                          In electrical.

                              RED
                  Can't we just ask them what happened?

                             PURPLE
                        (giggly and dazed)

                              WHITE
        No, they've been completely mind fucked. They're useless to us now.

                              WHITE
                Besides...it would ruin the fun of the game.

                              WHITE
          Seeing how we don't have enough evidence, I say we skip voting.

        YELLOW, PINK, RED, LIGHT GREEN, ORANGE, LIGHT BLUE
                            Skipping.

                              PINK
                        (humming to self)

SFX: DOORS SHUT

                              PINK
                            (annoyed)
                   Oh, great. The doors are locked.

SFX: ALIEN
SFX: TENTACLES

                              PINK
                            Oh, fuck!

SFX: TENTACLE THRUST

                              PINK
                            (moaning)

LIGHT GREEN
We lost another one.

ORANGE
Should we vote?

WHITE
No, I don't want to risk it.

WHITE
We still don't have enough to go off on.

LIGHT BLUE
(pretending to be worried)
Oh, no. I'm stuck in admin all by myself and sitting right next to a vent.

LIGHT BLUE
I sure hope no thick tentacled aliens come out and-

SFX: VENT OPEN
SFX: ALIEN
SFX: TENTACLES

LIGHT BLUE
(excited)
Oh, fuck yes!

LIGHT BLUE
(moaning)

WHITE
Damnit! We're dropping like flies.

SFX: ALERT

YELLOW
What's that?

WHITE
The reactor. Quick, we have to get to it.

WHITE
              (sigh of relief) Crisis averted.

                    WHITE
              Wait! Do you hear that?

SFX: TENTACLE THRUST

                    LIGHT GREEN
                    (moaning)

                    LIGHT GREEN
                    (orgasms)

SFX: VENT CLOSE
SFX: FOOTSTEPS

                    WHITE
              Light green! No!

                    WHITE
              We were too late.

SFX: EMERGENCY MEETING

                    WHITE
          Okay, we have to vote someone out right now.

                    RED
              What? Voting on four?

                    RED
              That sounds pretty sus

                    WHITE
              What are you trying to say?

                    RED
      I'm saying it's weird how you claim to have never lost a map as crewmate.

                    RED
              Maybe that's because…

RED
                    You've never been a crewmate!

                             WHITE
                    Quick to point fingers, Red.

                             WHITE
Tell me, when you found Light Blue's body, you sure that wasn't... a self report.

                              RED
                      White, you son of a-

                            YELLOW
                      Hey, I have a question.

                          WHITE, RED
                             What!

                            YELLOW
                 Why is Orange and my name red?

                            (silence)

SFX: SHUTE OPEN
AMB: SPACE

                            ORANGE
                  (sighs) God damnit, Yellow…

                            YELLOW
                          (defensive)
                   It was my first time playing!

                       --- Bonus Scene---

SFX: TENTACLE THRUST
SFX: ALIEN
                         DARK GREEN
                          (moaning)

                          DARK BLUE
    Brown, where were you when Black's body was discovered.

BROWN
Where was...where was I!?

BROWN
Purple is literally railing Green right in front of us.

DARK GREEN
(moaning)

DARK BLUE
Yeah...but what were your tasks?

BROWN
(frustrated groan)
